

Deep Green

Marika Hackman

Just because I love your skin
Doesn't mean I'll jump in
The water's clean and warm and green
I'm not allowed to swim
I'm scared of getting inBuried in my bag of hopes
She said they weren't happy to grow
Said feeding the storm is feeding your soul
Spider web and harlequin
Wraped around your sticky wings
It's pretty but it's hurting like hell
Cuz I know that I'm alone
My body's made of shell(s?)
And I know that you can tell
Uu, uu, beat me at my own damn game
Fucking with my Goddamn brain
Now I will never win again, better to love and to have and to hold
I heard that you like to swim
Doesn't mean I'm gonna jump in
But I put on my swimming set
Cuz I know I'm going to get wet
I know I'm going to get wet
I know I'm going to get wet
Yeah I know I'm going to get wet
Uuh, uuh, just because I love your skin
Doesn't mean I'll jump in
The water's clean and warm and green
I'm not allowed to swim
I'm scared of getting in
