Beautiful Day

X-Perience

its years since you've been leaving the places we were born i wake up i am receiving a sign of your return you gave me one good reason to wait until you come i'm waiting and i'm dreaming we?re drowning in the sun a beautiful day and a beautiful night you drive me crazy when you hold me tight i live my life so slow and i'll walk while you will run i slam the door behind me the same way as you've done the flowers you've planted are growing in the light they're waiting in the backyard i visit every night
