

Felicia

John Lars Zwerenz

When the autumn rain falls down upon you
You'll have me to kiss
For love and life are made of this.
O, the glow of the spring
Is a wonderful thing
When we walk in the sun.
But the glory of fall
Is my favorite of all,
Making lovers one,
Making lovers one.

Felicia, won't you release your
Long, black hair
In the autumn air?
Don't you know I care?

When the autumn rain falls down upon you
You'll have me to kiss.
For love and life are made of this.
I don't want to leave you
I don't want to grieve you.
Let's take a walk in the rain.
The trees are in bloom under the moon,
In the shade of the lane,
In the shade of the lane.

Felicia, won't you release your
Long, black hair
In the autumn air?
Don't you know I care?
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah!

Felicia, won't you release your
Long, black hair
In the autumn air?
Don't you know I care?
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah!

Felicia, won't you release your
Long, black hair

In the autumn air?
Don't you know I care?
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah!

Felicia, won't you release your
Long, black hair
In the autumn air?
Don't you know I care?
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah!

Felicia, won't you release your
Long, black hair
In the autumn air?
Don't you know I care?
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah!
