

Murder Fantasies

Chrom

This is for all those complicated people
For everyone standing in my way
I'm sick and tired of all the stupid people
They make me feel like I should go away
Murder fantasies are in my head
They speak to me and try to take control
Even when I'm lying in my bed
It takes my mind and it burns my soul
So get out of my way
There's nothing left to say
Don't want you here to stay
So get out of my way
Everybody show me your intention
I'm your gun and I will shoot you down
This is the day I live my murder fantasies
Then I will leave and I'll blow up this town
I saw the news about me in the T.V.
It feels so good, I love the mess around
And I won't stop until you all adore me
Now are you ready for the second round?
This is for all those complicated people
For everyone standing in my way
I'm sick and tired of all the stupid people
They make me feel like I should go away
So get out of my way
Don't want you here to stay
So get out of my way
Everybody show me your intention
I'm your gun and I will shoot you down
This is the day I live my murder fantasies
Then I will leave and I'll blow up this town
Everybody show me your intention
I'm your gun and I will shoot you down
This is the day I live my murder fantasies
Then I will leave and I'll blow up this town
Then I will leave and I'll blow up this town
Then I will leave and I'll blow up this town
So get out of my way
Everybody show me your intention
I'm your gun and I will shoot you down
This is the day I live my murder fantasies
Then I will leave and I'll blow up this town
Everybody show me your intention
I'm your gun and I will shoot you down
This is the day I live my murder fantasies
Then I will leave and I'll blow up this town
Then I will leave and I'll blow up this town
Then I will leave and I'll blow up this town
Then I will leave and I'll blow up this town
So get out of my way

Don't want you here to stay
So get out of my way
