

Poparazzi

Switchfoot

This is a tune for the poparazzi
Yo, yo, yo, hey, hey, hey
This is a tune for the poparazzi This is a tune for the poparazzi
The who's who and the so and so's
This is a tune for the graven images
Of Marilyn Monroe
We saw your face on the magazine
We heard the song on the MP3 You're stuck in my head
Stuck in my head, stuck in my head
You can close your ears and your eyes but
Pop will never leave you alone
This is a tune for the poparazzi Leave me alone with your social mingle
You try so hard to stay on top
Leave me alone with your little jingle
With your picture perfect pop
We read the article in 'Seventeen'
We saw your video on MTV But you're stuck in my head
Stuck in my head, stuck in my head
You can close your ears and your eyes but
Pop will never leave you alone
Pop will never leave you alone This is a tune for the late Nirvana
The teen spirit rock and roll
This is a tune for the velvet Elvises
On the 90210 I thought my eyes were gonna get off clean
Till I read your lips on the TV screen
You were busy sayin' what you didn't mean
Now everyone's singin' along
With your ridiculous song You got it stuck, you got it stuck in my head
Stuck in my head, stuck in my head
You can close your ears and your eyes
You can close your ears and your eyes but
Pop will never leave you alone Tune for the poparazzi
Tune for the poparazzi
