Shine (Dubshakra Mix)

Bond

Oh babe Little lady dyin' to find The love that she can call her own She can't be alone And that's where she's callin' my name, ooh yeah See I know that she can love me deeply If she could have the time To get her look just right And then maybe she could be mine, oh yeah 'Cause she's just tryin to shine To find something to get out of life When will she realize That the answer is right there in front of her eyes She go crazy thinking 'bout things She can't afford to have today She need to come on and love me for me I've been known to make a way, hey, ooh wee I know me and I can't love her like that I can be different from another man 'Cause she's so fine and somehow or someway I'm gonna make that girl mine 'Cause she's just tryin to shine To find something to get out of life When will she realize That the answer is right there in front of her eyes 'Cause she's just tryin to shine To find something to get out of life When will she realize That the answer is right there in front of her eyes Do you baby? Do do do do do do, uh huh Oh, uh yeah, hey, hey 'Cause she's just tryin to shine To find something to get out of life When will she realize That the answer is right there in front of her eyes 'Cause she's just tryin to shine To find something to get out of life

When will she realize

That the answer is right there in front of her eyes
'Cause she's just tryin to shine
To find something to get out of life
When will she realize
