Face In the Sky

Testament

Shadows glow from the full moonlight
Hear clouds cry, it's so insane
Souls hold on to the key of life
See how it's bleeding from the painWhen will they open their eyes
Stop to face our demise
It's live or die, who am I?
Face in the skyWalk with me, my friend, to a darkened place
Welcome down to the abyss
Caught between two worlds with no advocate
The legion's army holds on to your fateWhen will they open their eyes
Stop to face our demise
It's live or die who am I?
Face in the skyScreams from the night seem to intensify
As the air sifts silent through
Ghouls crowded in the clouds on a misty night
Guarding secrets man has brought to youWhen will they open their eyes
Stop to face our demise
It's live or die who am I?
Face in the skyWho am I?
