you are so pretty here that I'm falling behind oh no not again nevermind let's go and beg for time you the picked the wrong disaster i can't stop this thing from going fast i don't want to walk about the past i don't want to talk that road of those you may have hadyou know these things they happenwhich one do you want there is no need to think to speak to breathe let's go it's chemical green you picked the wrong addiction
