

Victim of Circumstance

Joan Jett and the Blackhearts

The police were waitin' when the sun came up
You better move your ass or we'll really get rough
I never wanted trouble but I sure got enough
I'm bad at bein' subtle but I ain't that tough, noJust a victim of circumstance
(Didn't you know)
Just a victim of circumstance
(Doesn't it show)I'm just a victim of circumstance
(Wherever I go)
Just a victim of a bad reputation
I go no chance of shakin'Really gets you down when you don't belong
An' everyone around says you growed up wrong
But why do they resent it, I ain't doin' anything
They say that I'm demented an' I never could sing
Then everywhere I went I caused them such alarm
You know I never meant to cause anybody harm, noJust a victim of circumstance
(Didn't you know)
Just a victim of circumstance
(Doesn't it show)I'm just a victim of circumstance
(Wherever I go)
Just a victim of a bad reputation
I go no chance of shakin'I've been laughed at, I've been shut out
But let there be no doubt
Never been afraid of chances I've been takin'The police are waitin' when the sun came up
You better move your ass or we'll really get rough
I never wanted trouble but I sure get enough
I'm bad at bein' subtle but I ain't that tough, noJust a victim of circumstance
(Didn't you know)
Just a victim of circumstance
(Doesn't it show)I'm just a victim of circumstance
(Wherever I go)
Just a victim of a bad reputation
I go no chance of shakin'

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>