Treasure

Common Children

Silence is falling
I'm calling just like a child
Shaking and aching
I'm faking it all the whileAnd then I wake up in the night
So I can try to be a little more than I am
And then I see you in the morning
I can only cry, I can't ask myself whyThis is when I love to cry
Don't even ask me why
This is when I love to cry'Cause the sky is falling down like rain
And I can see it, you know
Love is pouring down like rain
And I can feel itSister, Sister, Sister Mary
Oh, Sister Mary
Sister, Sister, Sister, Sister MaryShiver and quiver
We whisper inside this shell
Sleeping and dreaming
We're screaming but I won't tellAnd when I'm running from myself
And I can't hide, I won't ask myself why
And when I find you in this fever
I can only cry, you make me so shyThis is when I love to cry
Don't even ask me why
This is when I love to cryBecause the sky is falling down like rain
And I can see it, you know
Love is pouring down like rain
And I can feel itI can see and I can feel
Your love so real, my love
I can see and I can feel love, loveBecause the sky is falling down like rain
And I can see it, you know
Love is pouring down like rain
I can feel itThe sky is falling down like rain
And I can see it, you know
Love is pouring down like rain
And I can feel itSister, Sister, Sister Mary
Oh, Sister Mary
Sister, Sister, Sister, Sister Mary

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/