Ticket To Zen

Murmurs

I'm a dream liver
I'm a dream liver
I've got my ticket to Zen
And I'm on my way
I'm going to a place
Where hypnotism rings
Going to a magic wonderful it will mystify
Dreams take me far away land like a sprinkle on an ice cream cone
Fly like a dragon, tossing dust of an angel through the air like snow
Fantastical state of mind
Fantastical state of mind
Cause I'm dream liver
I'm a dream liver
I've got my ticket to Zen and I'm on my way
Flower petal take me
To a dandelion den
Where they'll be rainbow bricks to climb
Yeah to climb so high
Dreams take me far away land like a sprinkle on an ice cream cone
Fly like a dragon, tossing dust of an angel through the air like snow
Fantastical state of mind
Fantastical state of mind
Fantastical state of
Walk on the byway with the chosen ones
Stars shoot our wishes
Take us to Zen
Build a bridge over sorrows
Know that they'll be gone tomorrow
Walk on the byway with the chosen ones
Cause I'm a dream liver
I'm a dream liver
I've got my ticket to Zen and I'm on my way
From Branches I'll sing
To my challenging skies
I'll grow vines of hope for you to climb
I'm a dream liver
I'm a dream liver
I've got my ticket to Zen and I'm on my way
