In The Same Room

Mere Theory

Fingers in, listen
What voices say
Fingers in, listen
What voices say
You always wrote for me, ego
Risk worth taking risk worth leavin'
Seems I'm still afraid to promise an' to promise
Too big to stop too big to hold on
To trade up for the fast ride
Trade your friends
Days passes us
Don't move
Be still be silent
Pulling your teeth you push away, away
Cancel plans, cancel them all
Check your breath for cold and hold on Please hold on
No pictures left to burn good bye to
That smell of ash and white wall blank
Time passes us
Don't move
Be still be silent
Horizontal lines and button up
Horizontal lines and button up
Fingers in, listen
What voices say
The drawers of paper all say one thing
Like music boxes custom made
Time passes us
Don't move
Be still be silent
