Breathe

Andrew Allen

There must be some kind of way
To show me
Just how my breathing allows you
To own me
And if my life is in vain well
You owe me
Everything that I once thought
Now I don't see

I want to know this
Show me now
And hen you'll tell me that it's alright, alright
Tell me that it's just fine
I'm still breathing
Tell me that it's not right, not right
Tell me that it's just right
I'm still breathing

I'm looking out for this life remember
I don't see what you believed in December
And if I walk on this place
You will never be anything more to me
So listen to my breathing

I want to know this
Show me now
And then you'll tell me that it's alright, alright
Tell me that it's just fine
I'm still breathing
Tell me that it's not right, not right
Tell me that it's just right
I'm still breathing

There must be something inside that fooled you
Into the end what you want like fools do
And yet we breed the same egg
We all do
It's a trigger in your right hand
No we both got the left hand, yeah

See the life that I had is waiting
All the veggies sayin' difference I made it
Take a tip from the bus that's leaving
See the air you say takin' my breathing

Tell me that it's alright
And I will tell you that it's just fine
Tell me that it's not right
And I will tell you that it's just right if
I'm still breathing

Tell me that it's alright, alright
Tell me that it's just fine
I'm still breathing
Tell me that it's not right, not right
Tell me that it's just right if
I'm still breathing

Whoa! Well I'm still breathing
I'm still breathing
I'm still breathing
Yeah yeah
