Someday

Guy

I got something to tell everybody out there
Sometimes you may feel like life have you in bondage
You don't know which way to turn
And you just feel like deep down inside, God, You have to help meBut take it from me, someday
It may not be your day or the day that you want it to happen
But someday we'll all be free
I got a message to tell y'allI want y'all to listen to me
Listen very, very carefully
'Cause it's a short story, with a big message
Someday, someday we'll all be free, listenEven though, right now you may be going through Somehow you wear a smile
Rainy days don't wash away the pain inside
No, you can't hide, lift your hands to the skyIn our life we all need some relief
We all need peace to fulfill our destiny
I don't know what tomorrow may bring
But all I know is someday, we'll all be freeSomeday, we'll all be free
Someday, we'll all be free
Someday, we'll all be free
