

We Bounce

One Minute Silence

If I kill, can I not be the president too?
If I rape, can I come sit with you?
Have I failed? Well in the eyes of fools
If I lie, can I not speak the truth? If I kill, can I not be the president too? (And we bounce, we bounce)
If I rape, can I come sit with you? (And we bounce, we bounce)
Can I please permission sir to move? (And we bounce, we bounce)
Pretty fucking soon, you're gonna find out
Have I failed, have I failed
Just how much your nothing means to me We bounce, we bounce back, ain't shit without the pack
We bounce, we bounce back, ain't shit without the pack
The resolve is in the past
We bounce, we bounce back, ain't shit without the pack
Come come come, come come come
The resolve is in the cracks
We bounce, we bounce back, ain't shit without the pack
Come come come, come come come Impossibilities
If I am, well then I am with you (Yeah)
If I rise up, would you not rise up too? (And if I still can't see it)
If I fall, the flag I fly is yours (And I still can't see it)
Have I failed, have I failed
Pretty fucking soon, you're gonna find out
Just how much your nothing means to me
We bounce, we bounce back, ain't shit without the pack The resolve is in the past
We bounce, we bounce back, ain't shit without the pack
We bounce, we bounce back, ain't shit without the pack
Come come come, come come come
The resolve is in the cracks
We bounce, we bounce back, ain't shit without the pack Come come come, come come come
Pretty soon your gonna see me
Impossibilities, impossibilities
Bring your chosen Gods to eat me
Never sell your soul to be me
I ain't anybody's light
Someday soon you're gonna hear me
I ain't one to have you fear me
I ain't everybody's fight
Climb the highest tree and jeer me
Impossibilities, what d'ya mean? What d'ya mean? Impossibilities, what d'ya mean? What d'ya mean?
We bounce, we bounce back, ain't shit without the pack The resolve is in the past

We bounce, we bounce back, ain't shit without the pack

We bounce, we bounce back, ain't shit without the pack

Come come come, come come come

We bounce, we bounce back, ain't shit without the pack

The resolve is in the cracks

Come come come, come come come
Impossibilities, what d'ya mean? What d'ya mean?
Impossibilities, what d'ya mean? What d'ya mean?
