

Bloodgulch

In Due Time

compromise will be the rock tied around your feet that drowns you with no regrets you've always walked the line now it's time to choose a side how will you make your mark on eternity?
 take one last breath
 say one last prayer
 this is the point of no return how many of you will die today and say "I don't deserve this pain"? you can call yourself what you want let there be no misconceptions your time is up the verdict is in bloodgulch!
 LET'S GO!
