Lover, Where Do You Live?

Highasakite

Lover, where do you live?
In the skies, in the clouds, in the ocean?I learned a lesson 'bout bad ideas,
We're really out in the middle of it now,And if I ever see you again my love
All I'm ever gonna do is send shivers down that spine of yoursIt would be nice to come home, I guess..
To a couch, and a stove, and a backyard..Lover, where do you live?
In the skies, in the clouds, in the ocean?And if I ever see you again my love
All I'm ever gonna do is send shivers down that spine of yoursAnd if I ever see you again my love
All I'm ever gonna do is send shivers down
that spine of yours
All I'm ever gonna do is send shivers down that spine of yoursIf I ever see you again my love
If I ever see you again my love
If I ever see you again my loveLover, where do you live?
In the skies, in the clouds, in the ocean?
