

Rapid Calm

Between the Buried and Me

Speak now old soul disagreeing
Your choice soon lays
Speak now old soul
Your choice will soon be yours
Speak your timeDarkness ?
Darkness ?
?A quest for the brave falls in the fog
A light shines from a distant land of ghosts
They don't want you there
They don't want me here
Remember my name
The machine is crumbled in
A quest for the brave falls in the fog
A light shines from a distant land of ghosts
They don't want you there
They don't want me here
Remember my nameThe machine is crumbled in
A quest for the brave falls in the fog
A light shines from a distant land of ghosts
The dark will bring me back
Darkness ?
Darkness ?
A hollow ? room lifts me from its lights
Nothing in focus, carry us today is a ?
Accept all we are given
It is all here for a reasonA golden lever
A choice of gold or velvet
Do I go on or follow the ropes in the smoke?
Accept all we are given
It is all here for a reasonOne last search
Our shallow minds embrace this dream
One last search
To kneel in the famine room
One last search
Our shallow minds embrace this dream
One last search
To kneel in the famine room
One last search
One last search

One last search
