

Chasing Sirens

Orgy

Mmm aahIf you need to Change your style sometimes
Yes, sometimes
To please and satisfy
They'll call you a hypocrite
You're giving
Birth to all new trends
Visions they'll never comprehend
Because they're all so selfishEveryone look at me
Chasing sirens
Demanding their attention
So selfish
Everyone look at me
Chasing sirens
Trying to discover what's wrong with my mindSo they started to upheaval
(Started to upheaval)
But you prompted the war
You're still a hypocrite
Snapping the sleepers into motion
So their systems will change
Right now you're giving up but let me show youEveryone look at me
Chasing sirens
Demanding their attention
So selfish
Everyone look at me
I'm chasing sirens
Trying to discover what's wrong with my mindYou like to be the center of attention
Don't you?
Under the spell of another phase
(You're so pretentious)
You're so pretentious
Plastic uninvited
Don't you find it strange?
How they wear their egos on their sleeves?
(On their sleeves)
Until they see your face
(Until they see your face)
Don't you find it strange?
Strange

How they wear their egos on their sleeves?
(On their sleeves)
Until they see your face Everyone look at me
I'm chasing sirens
Trying to discover what's wrong with my mind
Everyone look at me
I'm chasing sirens
Trying to discover what's wrong with my mind So selfish
This day should last forever
Stuck on the merry go round
Keep spinning, never want to come down
So selfish
This day should last forever
So selfish
So selfish
