Modern Day Emma Goldman

Pretty Girls Make Graves

We were two girls who had it all
Made a team together
Left a trail of heartbreak in every townWe had it all planned out
Every face another name on the list
They'd know about us from miles around1, 2, 3, 4, watch your back now
There's a larger threat than what's implied
Our time is now
And I gotta have faith to win the fightBe my strength, I'll be your backbone Always danger of the unknown
Our battle has no end
We keep on going, keep on going nowPocket filled with matches baby
We're ready to set the fire
Like the burning, burning in our hearts
Of revolution plus desireGo, watch your back now
Yeah the old rules no longer apply
Gave us the roles to fit in
We told you where to stick them
And I gotta have faith to win the fight
