Too Long

Cameron Johnson

Too Long

Two down and three states to go
Ripped off the rearview mirror
And threw it on the floor

The closer I get the further it seems
Another sunrise takes its toll on me
Crawlinâ€™ my way back to where Iâ€™m supposed to be

And Iâ€™ve been gone for too long
Chasing after something that I, I had all along
Dodging scars and roping songs
Looking for somewhere I could say I belong

This road will forget my name I know
But one thing thatâ€™s for sure
Theyâ€™re waiting for me back home

The closer I get the further it seems
Another sunrise takes its toll on me
Crawlinâ€™ my way back to where Iâ€™m supposed to be

And Iâ€™ve been gone for too long
Chasing after something that I, I had all along
Dodging scars and roping songs
Looking for somewhere I could say I belong

So tired of running
From what I know is true
Ah Iâ€™m looking forward
To being there with you

And Iâ€™ve been gone for too long
Chasing after something that I, I had all along
Dodging scars and roping songs
Looking for somewhere I could say I belong
Iâ€™ve been gone for too long
Chasing after something that I, I had all along

Cameron Johnson â€“ vocals and guitars
Brad Benge â€“ background vocals, drums and bass
Aaron Till â€“ fiddle

Words and Music by Cameron Johnson and Bruce Johnson
Produced by Brad Benge
Copyright 2016 Ten â€˜til Two Music / Bruce Johnson
Member ASCAP

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/