Run To the Sun

N.E.R.D.

Thinking about the time we share

And how I wasn't there

It hurt me

These people overwork me

Then I heard maybe soon you'll leave

Excuse me lord if you have tricks up your sleeve

I'm not ready to be bereaved

I know I'm always asking for something

Or another

But this time, it's just time

'Cause I love her

But baby if he don't change his mind

Or fate or time

Yo I want to leave you with this lineChorus

It goes while you're here

I want to tell you something

It's that I love you girl

Yeah, and I wish we could run to the sun

And never come back

YeahYesterday I tied two rocks together

That symbolize our lives

And threw them in the ocean

Now they're on the ocean floor coastin'

'Til they stop rollin' so far

That no sonar would list them

To the point that no one would even believe that we existed

I know that may sound twisted

But my neglect is killin' me

I feel so guilty

Please have faith in if you feel me[Chorus: Repeat 2X]Though you're probably feelin' blue

And you'll do what you must do

I hope you know

I'd hand the skies to you

I'm so embarrassed for mankind

They have the nerve to let their weapon shine

They're so stupid

Do they not know you're about to fly high

Away

With the wings that god will give you someday

I'm not jealous I just can't take it S.O.S. to your ears, the only thing I ever feared was this day And having to say[Chorus:]
