

Loving You Tonight (Now What's Next Bonus Track)

Andrew Allen

Lost in the day, in a way, it's same as the one before this,
And I wish I could say that's it's all black and white
But it's gray, it's the same, it's the same and I'm so tired
But you are what I'm coming home to Oh and I'm thinking about a red wine buzz and takin' it easy,
And I got you in my arms, takin' a break from crazy And I'll say hey, you'll say baby, how's your day?
I'll say crazy, but it's all gonna be alright
You'll kiss my smile, I'll pull you closer,
Spend a while just getting to know ya,
But it's all gonna be all alright
Loving you tonight
Oh, oh, yeah, yeah
Loving you tonight
Oh, oh, yeah, yeah And you are there on my heart, at the start,
Of my every morning and I,
Can't deny, by the end of the day that I'm running on empty but,
You make it full, steal my breath, you're so unpredictable
That's what I'm coming home to Oh I'm dreaming about a romance, slow dancing with you,
When I got you in my arms and I don't care what we do 'Cause I'll say hey, you'll say baby, how's your day,
I'll say crazy, but it's all gonna be alright
You'll kiss my smile, I'll pull you closer,
Spend a while just getting to know ya,
But it's all gonna be alright
Loving you tonight 'Cause every day is just the in-between,
The hours separating you from me
I know you'll be waiting,
I know that you'll be waiting And I'll say hey, you'll say baby, how's your day,
I'll say crazy, but it's all gonna be alright
You'll kiss my smile, I'll pull you closer,
Spend a while just getting to know ya,
But it's gonna be all alright
I'm loving you tonight
Loving you tonight Loving you tonight
Loving you tonight I dream about a romance, slow dancing with you,
You in my arms and I don't care what we do Loving you tonight
