

Hailstones Don't Hurt

Soak

We was only trying to latch on
But you're lost
Screaming to clear our name
Of burning conscience
Locked yourself away
When you were satisfied
When you found someone and we were left outside
We was only trying to latch on
But you're lost
Ready for the rain to burn on the way home
Hailstones don't hurt
But your forget does
And we should move
But I don't wanna
But I don't wanna
But I don't wanna
But I don't wanna
When I'm lonely and you're
All I think about
Does it sting to know?
That your voice is the only sound to calm me down?
Hailstones don't hurt
But your forget does
Sober and I refuse to give up
But I don't wanna
But I don't wanna
But I don't wanna
But I don't wanna
(We was only trying to latch on but you're lost)
But I don't wanna
(Find me in the rain)
(We was only trying to latch on but you're lost)
(We'll see home again)
We must forget about you
And move on
