For Love

The Hope Conspiracy

This ritual is a crushing of the spirit sleepless and suffering I have Broken it's been dark the light of day is months away and I am years
From what I used to be I've tried so hard to find a piece of myself for
The love of the pain I push on through it all wake up. do it again DAY
IN AND DAY OUT connecting fully to the stings of sorrow so let the Judgement pass because there's no tomorrow DAY IN AND DAY OUT I did it
For love but only hurt you instead just blame and betray with nothing Left to give Days In. Days Out I did it for love no more.
