Let Me Be Real

Fedde le Grand

let me be real let me be real So I can feel, I can feelwhat the world wont reveal to meJust the thoughts in my head got me thinkin askin myself oh what am i living thoughts can be such a heavy burden its time to tear down these curtainslet the truth be heard give it to me word for word that's all i really ask fori can handle it, for better or worse now tell me what do you live foroooohi want the truth yeah so i can feel yeahlet me be real let me be real I want nothing but the truth yeah so I can feel I can feel what the world wont reveal to melet me be real let me be real I want nothing but the truth yeah
so I can feel I can feel what the world wont reveal to me
