

Jaded

Seemless

Move forward to a real progression mouths move quicker than a mind and perception.

Self righteousness becomes a killer of the soul.

You think you got it all jaded fool you're bound to fall.

Set me free let me be as I face this war inside.

Move forward to a real progression.

Don't let the past pull you down and suppress you.

Set me free so I can be the man I know I'm supposed to be now.

Underneath scars and lies you'll find.

Buried in a man that hides inside.

The truth will burn before your eyes in time.

Gotta learn to rise up.
