Wake Up

Two Door Cinema Club

Goodnight, daylight
I won't remember you for long
Sleep tight, fist fight
Until December's come and goneIt's only late you have time
With any reason that you findSomewhere in slumber
Is someone who did't see it comingIf all this leaves you behind
And everything starts to rewindIt doesn't mean anything
You won't remember what you see
It could take you a lifetime
A lifetimeYou got lost
Lost through the night
It's no loss
You'll be alrightTell me you'll feel better
When you're sleeping though the day
And I'll tell you how you missed it
When you wakeIt doesn't mean anything what you done or where you've been
It was a chance of a lifetimeYou got lost
Lost through the night
It's no loss
You'll be alrightTell me you'll feel better
When you are sleeping though the day
And I'll tell you how you missed it
When you wake up(When you wake up)
(When you wake up)
(When you wake up)
