

Pictured Life

Scorpions

Ooh, dark meditation
Your second sight can show my light
In a crystal ball
Sweet are the days, intoxication
Crow-black, the nights caging my mind
Behind the wall
Into the rock through walls of red dreams
Into the rock to find the cream
Into the rock through walls of red dreams
Pictured life from yesterday
Ooh, dark meditation
Deep down inside a stream of light

Begins to flow
Sweet are the days, intoxication
Crow-black, the nights caging my mind
Behind the wall
Into the rock through walls of red dreams
Into the rock to find the cream
Into the rock through walls of red dreams
