

My Alter Ego Says Hello

Bad Love Junkie

I hear it talking in my head
And breath in deeply through my nose
I feel it slip into my skin
Light up a cigarette then blow
My alter ego say's hello
My alter ego say's hello
It's cracking jokes and talking wild
Collection numbers as it goes
Debating arbitrary facts
So watch your girlfriend Romeo
When my alter ego say's hello
When my alter ego say's hello
I think I'm losing my grip
It's riding high I'm laying low
My troubles grow my egos laughing
And I'm about to explode
I have a monster in my head
I've fed it well and watched it grow
But now it's cut off my connection
One of us has to go
My alter ego's in control
My alter egos in consol
And my alter ego says hello
