Punching Walls

Morning Runner

I gotta find out
I don't see you around
No moreBut sir, don't forget
You'll stop your address
You'll fall
Through the floorDid you get our calls?
You still punching walls?
I don't see you round
No moreBy and by it's gone
But not if you rewind itBy and by it's gone
But not if you rewind itThey said they'd seen you
You weren't acting so toughWhat happened to your car?
I heard you drove real far
And just left,
All your stuffAnd that you ran right back
And took off.
You flew over
The rest of usBy and by it's gone
But not if you rewind itBy and by it's gone
But not if you rewind itAnd are you still punching walls?
You always seem to be where the rock falls
