

Moments Forever Faded

Funeral for a Friend

In the black and white, you're wounds all bound
Sitting at the table, you're biting nails all short
We to the consequence of adultery
Well as he rips you from your skin We're all playing for this and in your prayers
Will you believe?
Would you believe? You believe, you believe
Just for the first time
You believe, you believe
Just like the last time
You believe, you believe
A seam away from breaking
You believe, you believe
Always forever We're tasting you for the first time
Just to breathe you in
We're breaking you for the first time
We'll bathed sin
We'll bathed sin You believe, you believe
Just for the first time
You believe, you believe
Just like the last time
You believe, you believe
A seam away from breaking
You believe, you believe
Always forever Will the embers will burn you?
Will the embers will burn you?
Will burn you
Will burn you tonight
Will burn you
Will burn you tonight Moments forever faded
Will burn you tonight
Moments forever faded
Will burn you tonight
Moments forever faded
Will burn you tonight
