

A Time Machine Is My New Girlfriend

Van Hunt

I found a reason for magic
Quiet nights need to have it
Now I'm fresh as a daisy
Ready for your love to take me
Again and again The future was made for me
As a favor by my new girlfriend
She came to me and brought the living
And now I'm back into the swing of things
The youth carry a sense of drifting
Soaring, roaring like the 20s Time is a plaything
When a time machine is your new girlfriend I found a reason for magic That's where all the smiles live
Now I'm fresh as a baby
Ever since your love saved me from the end I paid all my late fees
No more rented entertainment
I'm so glad you're staying
21st century is 10 years old Mystery still lurks beyond the globe
We board the train rubbing elbows
With withered beings from the fall of Rome Time is a plaything
When a time machine is your new girlfriend Ooh, I was on a downward slope
With no one to control
The speed of my roller coaster
Love was cheaper than money
Happiness came at the cost of being with you Then an angel heard me yell
She put on her bells
Before she fell through the gale
And brought me to my feet
She brought me to my feet We lie in perfect position
To witness the birth of the ocean
I'm warm and next to my woman when it hits
I'm ageless as emotion Time is a plaything
When a time machine is your new girlfriend
It's just a world for me to stretch out in
