It's a Life

Park Ave.

It's a life, working lanes with his wife
Hand in hand, they both work at the alley
With an arcade in the back
Where the young are the restless on the set
The cameras are hot, the tape hasn't stopped
Since the scene at the diner, two on twoLots of pink, baby blue
And a name sewn on to a la shirt
With a loop, collar flat, two on twoHow they lived, in a shack
It was shot in the back of the lot
Where the curtains are drawn
And the wheels are all blocked
TV's on, engine's off, waking up
Hand in hand to the set at the alleyLots of pink, baby blue
And a name sewn on to a la shirt
With a loop, collar flat, two on two
