Another Rainy Day

Corinne Bailey Rae

Got taken in
We feasted on olives from the fridge
We stood alone everyday
We made love all afternoon
'Til the stars went gloom
You wrote, I layed
We dined on oysters and champagne
That's what it seemed like
We connect in so many ways
So easy on my sake
Why am I so shy around you?
Why am I so shy?
Why do I take care to astound you?
Why do I even try?
Another rainy day
We sat inside by the radiator
Watching old black and white films

Where everybody sang
You played in my solitude
You didn't get dressed 'til 2
New rain, says I
I wrote this song on my guitar
But it didn't turn out right
Still we just connected in other ways
So easy on my sake
Why am I so shy around you?
Why am I so shy?
Why do I take care to astound you?
Why do I even try?
Why am I so shy around
Oh why am I so shy?
Why do I take care
Why do I even try?
