16 Roses

Disappear Fear

(3:12)
I believe you never took me serious
That makes it all the more delirious
Your friends are acting awfully kind to me
The faceless wonder of integrity evades you now
To put it nicely
And if I look like your problem
You look like a broken promise to me
I got 16 roses on Valentine's Day
And not one word from you
I'm spending plastic like bona-fide nails
Soon they'll be after me to throw my bones in jail
Way too soon for me to talk about this
I miss you more than the wettest kiss
You could ever have with her!
