None Of Your Business

Salt-N-Pepa

Mmm, hmm, say what, what?
None of your business
Yeah, right, no, no, no, no
It doesn't matter 'cause it's
It doesn't matter 'cause it's
It doesn't matter 'cause it's
None of your business
I hear you saw her, saw her today
(Mmm, hmm)
I heard she said what you usually say
That she said
I heard she told you a lie
(Surprise, surprise)
That she can like you much better than I
(Yeah, right)
If you ask you why you're alone
If she asks you where I am
You tell her
It doesn't matter 'cause
It's none of your business
Stop asking questions
I've got nothing to say to you
Whatever happens
It's none of your business
Nothing to do with you
And none of your business too
I heard she asked you
She asked you my name
(Say what)
I heard she said not to like you this way
She said if I'm not with you
(Mmm, hmm)
Maybe I'm liking someone else too
The next time she comes
To you and asks you where you stay
You tell her
It doesn't matter 'cause
It's none of your business
Stop asking questions

I've got nothing to say to you
Whatever happens
Nothing to do with you
You're still in love when you find it within
You'll miss me more just because I'm away
So whoever wants to know the score
You tell this and nothing more, nothing more
Nothing to do with you
I've got nothing to do with you
Stop asking questions
Nothing to do with you
Stop asking questions
Whatever happens
