

Recipe For Disaster

Morcheeba

Wanna know why there's a dead guy in my dining room
Hit a dead end with my best friend, met his end too soon

 Cold blooded killer in the mirror, I don't recognize
 Cold and convicted, TV depicted, right before your eyes

 But it's over, I'm telling you now

 Oh no, no more

 Oh, I never felt my heart beat faster

 Oh, it's a recipe for disaster

 Oh, I never felt my heart beat faster

 Oh, it's a recipe for disaster

Early evening, wine was breathing, things were going well
I took a good look at the cookbook, found the perfect spell

 My preparation, anticipation, but suffered in suspense
 Intoxicated, he turns out wasted, and I took offense

 But it's over, I'm telling you now

 Oh no, no more

 Oh, I never felt my heart beat faster

 Oh, it's a recipe for disaster

 Oh, I never felt my heart beat faster

 Oh, it's a recipe for disaster
