

Lost + Found

Sara Masterson

Everyone is looking for something more. Everyone wants to see beauty at the door.

So many things beckoning to me, words and signs on my mind, expecting.

Time is slipping by, donâ€™t want to fight, donâ€™t want to plan it,

Time is on my mind, I see the signs, I want to grab it.

There is not a way to say everything right. There is not a perfect way to make the curse feel light.

So many things beckoning to me, words and signs on my mind, expecting.

Time is slipping by, donâ€™t want to fight, donâ€™t want to plan it,

Time is on my mind, I see the signs, I want to grab it.

I am lost and found, I am lost and found

Time is slipping by, donâ€™t want to fight, donâ€™t want to plan it,

Time is on my mind, I see the signs, I want to grab it.
