

Husam Husam

The Anniversary

I saw the stones in her eyes
I saw the shadow of the world turn white
She thought she did it right
The girl who fell across the sea Turn as the earth, and be free
Weep in the well, and be free
Drink mother's milk, and be free
Turn as the earth Husam, who shot your daughter
Asleep in the house of your father
Husam, who shot daughter
The girl who fell across the sea Turn as the earth, and be free
Weep in the well, and be free
Drink mother's milk, and be free
Turn as the earth, and be free
The girl who fell across the sea
