Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Abusing
No more
No moreHe says he loves you but the make-up
Will not cover up the bruises he left on you
I tried to stop the cycle for you, this relationship is wack
You bastard, don't touch her anymoreStand up, stand up
He's a drunk and abusing
Stand up, stand up
He thinks that you'll never leave himStand up, stand up
I wont let him get near you
Stand up, stand up
Next time's your fault when he hurts youI think that you should have the chance
To enjoy the friends you have, he wants to erase them
I know that you are trying hard not to show up
But the coward is an asshole, he's shamelessStand up, stand up
He's a drunk and abusing
Stand up, stand up
He thinks that you'll never leave himStand up, stand up
I wont let him get near you
Stand up, stand up
Next time's your fault when he hurts youAbusing
No more
No more
Abusing
No more
No moreStand up, stand up
It's not your fault when he hits you
Stand up, stand up
He thinks that you'll never leave him
Stand up, stand up, stand up
He'll always hurt youStand up, stand up, stand up
One day he'll kill you

Stand up, stand up, stand up
He's always hurting you
Stand up, stand up, stand up
One day he'll kill you
