

Miracle (Live at Radio New Zealand)

Kimbra

I'm rising up
Sometimes I want to get away
And from the moment I met you
I'm ready to fade
I'm ready for a brighter day
Like a castaway, sometimes I feel so separated
But I can never forget you
The emotion's fine
Yeah, you shine a little light of me Send me your love again
'Cause you're my miracle, miracle, miracle
Yeah, can't describe but I'll leave it in a
Miracle, miracle, miracle
Send me your love again
'Cause you're my miracle, miracle, miracle
Send me your love again
'Cause you're my miracle, miracle, miracle I'm rising up
Sometimes I feel so far away
But it's like somebody send you
I'm ready to fade
I'm ready for a brighter day
Now I flash away
Your love is like a revelator
We're dividing the fiction
No way to explain
What's happening inside of me Send me your love again
'Cause you're my miracle, miracle, miracle
Yeah, can't describe but I'll leave it in a
Miracle, miracle, miracle
Send me your love again
Miracle, miracle, miracle
Send me your love again
'Cause you're my miracle, miracle, miracle You got me with my hands up
Got me seeing visions of love
Yeah you got me with my hands above my head
And every thought I can't believe it again Send me your love again
'Cause you're my miracle, miracle, miracle
Yeah, can't describe but I'll leave it in a
Miracle, miracle, miracle
Send me your love again

Miracle, miracle, miracle
Send me your love again
'Cause you're my miracle, miracle, miracle
Miracle, miracle, miracle
Miracle, miracle, miracle
Miracle, miracle, miracle
