

Dead Man Walking

Dave Moore

I took a walk through the garden
I saw the stone was rolled away
I heard the voices they were talking
They never thought they'd see
The day of a
Dead Man Walking
I took a walk through the city
I saw a woman on the streets
Dirty clothes and a cardboard sign
Begging at the busy world's feet
She was the
People say it can't be
A dead man's walking with me
People say it can't be
A dead man's living in me
I heard the angels in the garden
They said I too could be a dead
Man walking
