Blue Train

John Coltrane

Felt that rumble underneath my feet
I knew I bought myself a first class seat
On the blue trainI knew you'd break me down and leave me flat
I saw it coming but I turned my back
I feel like a nickel on the railroad track
Here comes the blue trainBlue train, blue train
Broken hearts ride free
On the blue train, blue train
Coming for to carry meIt's not the first time I've been down this line
I've done some traveling with this heart of mine
Seems to be a longer ride each time
On the blue train
