

Riverdale

Ursel

While I am sitting by the river side with a sentiment running so wild I can tell this spirit not to hide
I can tell this spirit not to hideIts like a fire coloring the water
I can see it burning down the river maybe its coming to release my soul maybe its coming to release my mindBabe, all your sorrows are inside your head there is nothing meaning in this game everything is in the other place
