Smile

Lasgo

When I feel I'm all alone
And I can't seem to find a home
I call your name
When I'm lost and in the dark
And all I have is just a spark
You fuel the flame
You know I can't help myself
When I see you, I just want to smile
I don't want nobody else
You're so fine, I really like your style
So let me stay a while
We were never more than friends
But there's no one who understands
Me, like you do
Every word you say is right
And I don't want to spend the night
Away from you
You know I can't help myself
When I see you, I just want to smile
I don't want nobody else
You're so fine, I really like your style
So let me stay a while
You know I can't help myself
When I see you, I just want to smile
I don't want nobody else
You're so fine, I really like your style
So let me stay a while
