Catch of the Century (Live In Los Angeles)

Edguy

You do not know and you don't care and you may never learn I made approches you gave me teeth and got my hope injuredUnprepossessing,that's what you say -don't get the essential point what it came down to was you ain't got nothing here's to the wicked and here's to the oddYou got your chance going down the drain you're dumping the catch of the century you've had your chance but you're much too vain to take it the catch of the centuryNobody's waiting cause all the world seems like it's already spoken for a host of rivals-I'm out of vogue and I'll be forevermoreYou strut around sneer from on high I'm on the road again I'm going down with flying colors before I go down on somebody elseYou got your chance going down the drain you're dumping the catch of the century and lady's luck got her ass in pain you're wasting the catch of the century
