Pretend

The Mavericks

Pretend you're still in love with me
And things are what they used to be
Just one last time before you go
Pretend that you still love me soPretend I'm still the only one
And all our dreams have just begun
I know our love's come to an end
So one more time let's just pretendMaybe there's a chance that you could change your mind
If you just pretend you love me one more time
I don't want to be a memory or a friend
Darlin', you don't have to love me, just pretendOhh owwMaybe there's a chance that you could change your mind
If you just pretend you love me one more time
I don't want to be a memory or a friend
Darlin', you don't have to love me, just pretendI don't want to be a memory or a friend
Darlin', you don't have to love me just pretend
Darlin', you don't have to love me just pretend
