

I Wouldn't Trade You

The Phoenix Within

I wouldn't trade you

By: Omar Feliciano

Verse 1:

We can lay here naked in this bed
& when you decide to wake up so will I
We can break the hands on every clock
& maybe time will stop for you and I

Pre-chorus:

Cause I feel the sudden urge to scream
Like I'm tearing at the seams, I want to hear you sing

Chorus:

Remember the good times not the bad
Enjoy the simple things we have
I wouldn't trade you
Forget all the fights alone with advice
You are the prize in my life
I wouldn't trade you

Verse 2:

I long for the feeling of your skin
So soft so warm and well preserved
I can't believe your all that I've been thinking of Suddenly this place is just, just not big enough

Bridge:

You make me want to scream
Call everyone I know
& let them know
That I have found the one
