Old #7

Shelby Lynne

(*S. Lynne)
Are you here, are you gone*
Was I dreaming, after all
Now tell me, is it too early for drinking?
Was I thinking, was I lying
Was I just here, sitting crying
Now I know, you will never go away.
But baby, oh baby
I'm going, yes going crazy
Please help me, make it a double
Old #7
Has your new love gone away
Did you skip out on the pain?
Were you hungry for the unknown kind of love?
Was it perfect, yes it was.
You just didn't stay because
You were weary that I might be what you need.
But baby, oh baby
I'm going, yes going crazy
Please help me, make it a double
Old #7
[Bridge:]
Did you happen to forget I would die if you left me
Did you cease to recall any love for me at all?
But baby, oh baby
I'm going yes going crazy
Please help me make it a double
Old #7
